LENTICULAR

Meaning: LENTICULAR: Adjective describing a lens-shaped formation, often used to refer to clouds or images that appear to change or shift based on the viewer's perspective.

1. The lenticular clouds formed a striking formation over the mountain range.
2. Her artwork featured lenticular prints that changed images as you moved past them.
3. The scientist explained how lenticular lenses can enhance visual clarity in certain devices.
4. In the evening sky, the lenticular formations resembled flying saucers hovering in place.
5. Lenticular technology is often used in advertising to create eye-catching, dynamic displays.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lenticular