

LENTIFORM

Meaning: Lentiform refers to a shape that is lens-like or oval, often used to describe certain anatomical structures or botanical forms.

1. The lentiform nucleus plays a crucial role in the regulation of movement and coordination.
2. In botany, the lentiform shape of certain seeds helps them disperse more effectively in their environment.
3. During the dissection, the anatomy student identified the lentiform structure within the brain.
4. The artist captured the lentiform form of the leaf, emphasizing its unique curvature and symmetry.
5. In her essay, she discussed how the lentiform configuration of the galaxy influences its gravitational pull.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lentiform>