

LENTOID

Meaning: LENTOID: resembling or shaped like a lens, often used to describe a convex form in gemstones or biological structures.

1. The lentoid shape of the gemstone caught the light beautifully, enhancing its brilliance.
2. In biology, the lentoid structure can be observed in certain types of lens cells.
3. The artist chose a lentoid design for the sculpture to convey a sense of fluidity and movement.
4. During the experiment, the researchers noted the lentoid formation of the crystals under the microscope.
5. The architect incorporated lentoid elements into the building's design to create a unique visual appeal.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lentoid>