

LEPERED

Meaning: 'LEPERED' refers to being treated as an outcast or socially rejected, often due to stigma or perceived unworthiness.

1. The village had long lepered the outcasts, shunning them from the community.
2. In the harsh light of judgment, he felt lepered by those he once called friends.
3. The lepered individuals sought refuge in the forest, away from the prying eyes of society.
4. Despite being lepered, she maintained her dignity and inner strength.
5. His reputation was so tarnished that he felt lepered even in his own home.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lepered>