

LEPID

Meaning: Lepid refers to characteristics or features related to or resembling the scales of butterflies and moths, particularly in terms of intricate patterns and textures.

1. The lepid features of the butterfly's wings are breathtakingly intricate.
2. Her lepid collection included rare specimens from around the world.
3. The scientist published a paper on lepid diversity in urban environments.
4. Visitors to the museum were fascinated by the lepid artwork on display.
5. Lepid fossils provide valuable insights into the evolution of ancient species.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lepid>