

LEPIDOMELANE

Meaning: Lepidomelane is a black, flaky mineral belonging to the mica group, commonly found in metamorphic rocks and noted for its distinct crystallographic characteristics.

1. Lepidomelane is a common mineral found in many metamorphic rocks.
2. Geologists often study lepidomelane for its unique crystallographic properties.
3. The presence of lepidomelane can indicate specific conditions of formation in a geological context.
4. In petrology, lepidomelane is classified as a type of biotite due to its layered structure.
5. Researchers are investigating the role of lepidomelane in the composition of certain igneous rocks.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lepidomelane>