

LEPROUS

Meaning: Leprous: resembling or characterized by decay, deterioration, or a state of ruin, often evoking a sense of desolation.

1. The leprous landscape was a haunting reminder of the devastation left in the wake of the storm.
2. She gazed at the leprous buildings, their walls crumbling and covered in decay.
3. His once-vibrant skin now bore the leprous marks of his long battle with the disease.
4. The artist captured the leprous beauty of the abandoned town in his haunting painting.
5. Despite his leprous appearance, he possessed a spirit that shone brightly in the darkness.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/leprous>