

LES

Meaning: Les (noun): A given name, often a diminutive of Leslie, or a reference to the character or title in Victor Hugo's novel "Les Misérables."

1. Les is known for his exceptional talent in playing the guitar.
2. The professor assigned a reading from Les Misérables for the literature class.
3. During the meeting, Les brought up several important points that needed discussion.
4. I ran into Les at the coffee shop, and we had a great chat about old times.
5. Les always has a unique perspective on current events that makes the conversation lively.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/les>