

LEST

Meaning: LEST (conjunction): for fear that; to avoid the possibility of something undesirable happening.

1. She left early lest she miss the train.
2. He studied hard lest he fail the exam.
3. The team practiced diligently lest they lose the championship.
4. They kept the windows closed lest the rain ruin the furniture.
5. I whispered my secrets to her lest anyone else overhear.
6. She stayed home from the party lest she catch a cold.
7. He arrived early lest he miss the beginning of the presentation.
8. They whispered their secrets lest anyone overhear them.
9. Lest we forget, the sacrifices made by those who came before us are invaluable.
10. She took notes during the lecture lest she forget the important points.
11. She studied late into the night lest she forget the material before the exam.
12. He wore a jacket lest it rain and he get soaked.
13. They decided to leave early lest they be caught in traffic.
14. She whispered her secrets lest anyone overhear them.
15. He practiced daily lest his skills become rusty over time.
16. She spoke softly lest she disturb the sleeping child.
17. He took the umbrella lest it rain during their picnic.
18. They practiced diligently lest they forget their lines on stage.
19. The teacher reminded the students to study hard lest they fail the exam.
20. She locked the door carefully lest anyone try to enter uninvited.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lest>