

LETCHE

Meaning: Letch: a man who behaves in a lecherous manner, often making inappropriate sexual advances or comments towards women.

1. He was known to be a lecher, often making inappropriate comments towards women in the office.
2. Despite his charming demeanor, many recognized him as a lecher who couldn't control his wandering eyes.
3. The old man was labeled a lecher after he made advances towards the young waitress at the diner.
4. Her friends warned her about dating someone with a reputation for being a lecher, but she ignored their advice.
5. At the party, he came across as a lecher, making all the guests uncomfortable with his lewd jokes.
6. He was often labeled a lecher for his inappropriate comments towards women.
7. The lecher at the bar made everyone uncomfortable with his lewd remarks.
8. Despite his charm, many viewed him as a lecher because of his wandering eyes.
9. She rolled her eyes at the lecher who couldn't take a hint and kept flirting with her.
10. His reputation as a lecher overshadowed any genuine qualities he might have had.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lecher>