

LETHARGY

Meaning: Lethargy is a state of sluggishness or inactivity often characterized by a lack of energy or enthusiasm.

1. After a long week of work, I was overcome by a feeling of lethargy that made it difficult to get out of bed.
2. The summer heat often brings a sense of lethargy, making even the simplest tasks seem daunting.
3. Despite her initial enthusiasm for the project, a wave of lethargy set in as the deadlines approached.
4. His lethargy was evident in his sluggish movements and lack of motivation to engage in any activity.
5. The doctor explained that excessive lethargy could be a sign of an underlying health issue that needed to be addressed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lethargy>