

LETHEONIZE

Meaning: Letheonize (verb): to induce a state of forgetfulness or to erase painful memories, often through calming or soothing experiences.

1. The tranquil waters of the lake seemed to letheonize the memories of a turbulent past.
2. In the depths of her mind, she wished to letheonize the pain that had haunted her for years.
3. He believed that art could letheonize the chaos of modern life, bringing peace to the viewer.
4. The ancient ritual was said to letheonize the soul, allowing one to forget their earthly troubles.
5. As the music played, it felt as if the notes would letheonize all the worries of the world away.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/letheonize>