

LEVANTER

Meaning: Levanter: a strong, warm easterly wind that often brings sudden changes in weather, particularly in coastal regions.

1. The levanter blew in from the east, carrying with it a refreshing chill.
2. Sailors warned each other about the dangers of the levanter, known for its sudden strength.
3. As the levanter swept through the town, the trees bent low under its force.
4. The weather forecast predicted a strong levanter, prompting residents to secure their boats.
5. Tourists marveled at the phenomenon of the levanter while enjoying their seaside picnic.
6. The levanter blew steadily across the coast, bringing warmth and moisture to the parched land.
7. Sailors often seek shelter in the harbor when a levanter is forecasted, as its winds can be unpredictable.
8. The local fishermen learned to navigate the waters carefully, especially when a strong levanter was blowing.
9. With the onset of the levanter, the skies darkened, hinting at an impending storm.
10. She enjoyed the refreshing breeze of the levanter, which reminded her of summer days spent by the sea.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/levanter>