

LEVATION

Meaning: Levation is the upward movement or elevation of the Earth's surface, often resulting from geological processes.

1. The levation of the ground after the earthquake surprised the residents.
2. In geological terms, levation refers to the upward movement of the Earth's crust.
3. The artist captured the levation of the mountain range beautifully in her painting.
4. During the hike, we noticed the levation of the trail as it climbed steeply.
5. The levation of the landscape created stunning panoramic views for the visitors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/levation>