

LEVIGATION

Meaning: Levigation is the process of reducing the particle size of solid substances by grinding them in a liquid to create a fine powder.

1. Levigation is often used in the preparation of fine powders for pharmaceuticals.
2. The chemist explained that levigation helps to reduce the particle size of solid substances.
3. During the levigation process, the mixture is carefully ground with a liquid to ensure uniformity.
4. In traditional medicine, levigation was a common technique for creating herbal remedies.
5. The quality of the final product can greatly depend on the efficiency of the levigation method used.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/levigation>