

LEVY

Meaning: Levy (verb): to impose or collect a charge, tax, or fee by authority.

1. The government decided to levy a new tax on luxury goods to increase revenue.
2. In response to the growing need for infrastructure, the city council voted to levy additional fees on new developments.
3. During the meeting, the committee proposed to levy fines on businesses that violate environmental regulations.
4. The school district plans to levy a small increase in property taxes to fund improvements in local schools.
5. To address the budget shortfall, the state will levy a temporary surcharge on income tax rates.
6. In response to the rising costs of public services, the city council voted to levy additional fees on residents.
7. The organization plans to levy fines against businesses that fail to comply with environmental regulations.
8. During the meeting, the committee discussed the possibility of a special levy to fund local school improvements.
9. Citizens voiced their concerns about the fairness of the proposed levy on property owners.
10. The government decided to levy a new tax on luxury goods.
11. Local authorities are planning to levy fines on businesses that violate safety regulations.
12. During the meeting, the council proposed to levy additional charges for late payments.
13. In times of crisis, it is common for governments to levy extraordinary measures to stabilize the economy.
14. The organization aims to levy support from the community to fund its charitable projects.
15. The government decided to levy a new tax to fund public infrastructure projects.
16. In response to the rising costs of healthcare, the city council voted to levy additional fees on local businesses.
17. The organization was forced to levy fines against members who violated the established rules and regulations.

18. Farmers were concerned about the potential levy on agricultural land, fearing it would increase their operating costs.

19. To support the arts, the community planned to levy a small surcharge on ticket sales for local events.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/levy>