LIAISON

Meaning: Liaison: a person who acts as a link to assist communication and cooperation between groups or individuals.

1. The diplomat acted as a liaison between the two countries to facilitate negotiations.
2. She took on the role of liaison for the project, ensuring smooth communication among team members.
3. His experience in the military made him an ideal liaison to coordinate with civilian organizations.
4. The liaison officer provided critical updates to the management team during the crisis.
5. Effective liaison between departments can significantly enhance overall productivity and morale.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/liaison