

LIBATORY

Meaning: Libatory (adj.): relating to or characterized by the act of liberating or providing freedom, often in the context of emotional or creative expression.

1. The librarian curated a collection of libatory texts that explored the depths of human emotion.
2. In her essay, she examined the libatory nature of music and its impact on mental health.
3. The novel's libatory themes resonated deeply with readers seeking solace in its pages.
4. He found the libatory atmosphere of the retreat to be a perfect escape from his daily stresses.
5. The artist's work often featured libatory elements that invited viewers to reflect on their own experiences.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/libatory>