

LIBEL

Meaning: Libel is the act of publishing false and damaging statements about a person or entity in written form, which can result in legal action.

1. The newspaper faced a lawsuit for libel after publishing false information about the celebrity.
2. Writing a libelous article can have serious legal consequences for journalists.
3. His reputation was damaged due to the libel spread by an anonymous online source.
4. The politician threatened to sue for libel if the unverified accusations were not retracted.
5. In the age of social media, the potential for libel has increased significantly.
6. The newspaper was sued for libel after publishing false accusations about the celebrity.
7. Her reputation suffered greatly due to the libelous statements made in the online article.
8. He faced serious consequences for the libel he committed against his former business partner.
9. The court ruled that the blog post constituted libel, leading to a significant settlement.
10. Defamation laws protect individuals from libel and slander that can harm their reputation.
11. The journalist faced a libel suit after publishing false claims about the celebrity.
12. She was careful with her words, knowing that even a slight exaggeration could be considered libel.
13. The company filed for libel when a blog spread misleading information about its products.
14. His reputation suffered greatly due to the libelous statements made in the local newspaper.
15. Proving libel in court often requires clear evidence of malicious intent and falsehood.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/libel>