

LIBELANT

Meaning: A libelant is a person who brings a lawsuit for libel, claiming that false statements have harmed their reputation.

1. The libelant in the case presented compelling evidence to support their claims of defamation.
2. After careful consideration, the judge ruled in favor of the libelant, citing the defendant's false statements.
3. The libelant sought damages for the harm caused by the defamatory article published by the newspaper.
4. In court, the libelant described the emotional distress caused by the accusations made against them.
5. The attorney explained that the libelant must prove actual malice to win the case against the publisher.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/libelant>