

LIBELIST

Meaning: Libelist: a person who publishes false and defamatory statements about another, typically in written form.

1. The libelist faced serious repercussions after publishing false accusations against the celebrity.
2. In the courtroom, the defense attorney argued that the plaintiff was a notorious libelist with a history of fabricating stories.
3. She was determined to expose the libelist who had tarnished her reputation with malicious gossip.
4. After extensive research, the journalist discovered that the libelist had a personal vendetta against the politician.
5. The libelist's actions not only caused harm to individuals but also undermined the credibility of the media as a whole.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/libelist>