

LIBELLEE

Meaning: Libellee: a person against whom a libel lawsuit is filed, typically in a case involving defamation.

1. The libellee in the defamation case presented strong evidence to refute the allegations.
2. During the trial, the libellee argued that the statements made were not only false but also harmful to their reputation.
3. As the libellee, she had the right to defend her character and seek damages for the slanderous remarks.
4. The jury was tasked with determining whether the libellee had indeed suffered any harm from the published statements.
5. In a surprising turn of events, the libellee offered a heartfelt apology to the plaintiff during the proceedings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/libellee>