

LIBELLULID

Meaning: Libellulid refers to a family of dragonflies (Libellulidae) characterized by their vibrant colors and distinctive wing patterns.

1. The libellulid dragonflies are known for their vibrant colors and distinctive wing patterns.
2. Researchers studied the mating habits of various libellulid species in the wetlands.
3. In the summer months, libellulids can be seen darting around ponds and streams, hunting for insects.
4. Conservation efforts are important to protect the habitats of libellulid populations facing environmental threats.
5. Entomologists often classify libellulids as part of the broader family of dragonflies due to their unique characteristics.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/libellulid>