

LIBELOUS

Meaning: Libelous refers to containing false statements that damage a person's reputation, typically published in written form.

1. The article contained libelous statements that could damage his reputation.
2. She decided to sue the blog for publishing libelous content about her business.
3. In a defamation case, proving that the information was libelous is crucial to winning.
4. His libelous remarks during the interview led to a significant backlash from the public.
5. After the libelous accusations surfaced, he felt compelled to defend his character publicly.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/libelous>