

LIBERATION

Meaning: Liberation is the act of setting someone free from oppression, confinement, or tyranny.

1. The liberation of the oppressed people marked a turning point in the nation's history.
2. After years of struggle, the activists celebrated their hard-won liberation from tyranny.
3. She felt a sense of liberation as she finally pursued her dreams without fear of judgment.
4. The film beautifully captured the theme of personal liberation against societal constraints.
5. His writings on liberation philosophy inspired many to seek freedom in their own lives.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/liberation>