

LIBERATORY

Meaning: Liberatory refers to having the quality or capacity to free individuals or groups from oppression or restrictive conditions.

1. The liberatory aspects of art can inspire communities to challenge systemic oppression.
2. In her speech, she emphasized the liberatory potential of education in transforming lives.
3. The movement sought to create a liberatory environment where all voices could be heard.
4. Through storytelling, the workshop aimed to provide a liberatory experience for participants.
5. His research focused on liberatory practices that empower marginalized groups to reclaim their narratives.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/liberatory>