

LICH

Meaning: Lich: a undead creature, often a former human, that possesses magical powers and is capable of raising and controlling the dead.

1. The lich in the ancient tale was feared for its ability to control the dead.
2. She felt a chill run down her spine as the lich emerged from the shadows.
3. In the game, players must defeat the lich to retrieve the stolen artifacts.
4. Legends spoke of a powerful lich who once ruled over a desolate kingdom.
5. The necromancer sought to become a lich, trading his humanity for eternal life.
6. The lich rose from the grave, its hollow eyes glowing with an eerie light.
7. In folklore, a lich is often depicted as a powerful sorcerer who has achieved immortality through dark magic.
8. The hero prepared for battle, knowing that defeating the lich would require both strength and cunning.
9. Legends spoke of a cursed tome that could transform a mortal into a lich, granting them unimaginable power.
10. As the villagers gathered, they shared whispered tales of a lich that haunted the ancient ruins on the outskirts of town.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lich>