

LICK

Meaning: LICK: To pass the tongue over a surface in order to taste, clean, or moisten it.

1. The dog eagerly licked the peanut butter off the floor.
2. She gave the ice cream cone a quick lick before it melted.
3. He watched the cat lick its fur, meticulously cleaning each paw.
4. After the rain, the children licked the droplets off the slides with delight.
5. The stamp was old, but he still decided to lick it to send the letter.
6. The dog eagerly licked the ice cream cone, trying to savor every last drop.
7. She leaned down to lick the stamp before placing it on the envelope.
8. After the rain, the cat licked its paws clean with a contented expression.
9. He couldn't help but lick his lips at the delicious smell wafting from the kitchen.
10. The child giggled as she watched her friend lick the frosting off his fingers.
11. The dog eagerly began to lick the ice cream cone that had fallen on the ground.
12. She gave her cat a gentle lick on the head to show her affection.
13. After the rain, the little boy was delighted to lick the droplets off the leaves.
14. He watched the ice melt slowly as the sun's warmth caused it to lick at the edges of the glass.
15. The artist used a fine brush to lick the paint across the canvas, creating a beautiful gradient.
16. The dog eagerly licked the ice cream cone, savoring every bite.
17. She watched as the cat licked its paw, meticulously cleaning itself.
18. After the rain, the children liked to lick the droplets off the leaves.
19. He gave her a quick peck on the cheek, then playfully licked his lips.
20. The salty ocean water made him want to lick his lips in anticipation of the feast.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lick>