

LICKING

Meaning: Licking: the act of passing the tongue over a surface, often to taste or show affection.

1. The dog was happily licking its owner's face after a long day apart.
2. She could hear the sound of the ice cream truck as children rushed outside, licking their cones.
3. He caught himself licking his lips in anticipation of the delicious meal ahead.
4. The cat sat in the sun, contentedly licking its paws to clean itself.
5. After finishing the chocolate bar, she found herself licking the wrapper for any leftover pieces.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/licking>