

LICOROUS

Meaning: Licorous: having a rich, sweet, and often enticing aroma or quality, particularly in relation to food or charm.

1. The licorous scent of the cake wafted through the kitchen, enticing everyone nearby.
2. His licorous demeanor made it difficult for her to resist his charm and wit.
3. She poured the licorous wine into her glass, savoring its rich, fruity aroma.
4. The novel was filled with licorous descriptions of feasts and celebrations that captivated the reader's imagination.
5. As they strolled through the vineyard, the licorous grapes glistened under the warm sun, promising a delicious harvest.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/licorous>