

LICOUR

Meaning: Licour: A sweet, flavored alcoholic beverage, often enjoyed as a digestif or dessert accompaniment.

1. The local distillery is known for its unique licour that combines exotic spices and fruits.
2. After dinner, we decided to indulge in a sweet licour that perfectly complemented the dessert.
3. He poured a generous amount of licour into the glass, savoring its rich aroma.
4. At the tasting event, various licours were sampled, each with its own distinct flavor profile.
5. She enjoyed mixing the licour with club soda for a refreshing summer cocktail.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/licour>