

LIDLESS

Meaning: LIDLESS: adjective describing something that lacks a cover or lid, often conveying an open or exposed quality.

1. The lidless pot simmered on the stove, releasing fragrant steam into the air.
2. In the dim light of the room, her lidless eyes seemed to reflect an endless depth of sorrow.
3. The lidless jar sat on the shelf, filled with colorful candies that beckoned to children.
4. He stared into the lidless abyss, contemplating the vastness of the universe around him.
5. The lidless container was a perfect home for the vibrant flowers, allowing them to thrive in sunlight.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lidless>