

LIED

Meaning: Lied (verb): past tense of lie, meaning to make a false statement with the intention of deceiving.

1. She lied about her whereabouts last Friday night.
2. He realized too late that he had lied to himself for years.
3. The witness claimed she had lied under pressure from the police.
4. When confronted, he admitted he had lied to protect his friend.
5. Their relationship suffered because she often lied about her feelings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lied>