

LIEUTENANT

Meaning: Lieutenant: a military officer ranking just below a captain, responsible for leading and managing troops.

1. The lieutenant led his squad through the dense forest on their training exercise.
2. She was promoted to lieutenant after demonstrating exceptional leadership during the mission.
3. The lieutenant reviewed the new recruits, ensuring they were prepared for their first deployment.
4. His calm demeanor during the crisis impressed everyone, especially the commanding lieutenant.
5. As a lieutenant in the navy, she had the opportunity to travel to many countries around the world.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lieutenant>