

LIFE-PRESERVER

Meaning: A life-preserver is a buoyant device designed to be thrown to a person in water to provide flotation and prevent drowning.

1. The lifeguard threw a life-preserver to the struggling swimmer.
2. During the storm, the captain ensured that every passenger had access to a life-preserver.
3. She always kept a life-preserver on her boat in case of emergencies.
4. The bright orange life-preserver was easy to spot in the water.
5. In a crisis, a life-preserver can mean the difference between life and death.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/life-preserver>