

LIFEBLOOD

Meaning: Lifeblood refers to something essential for sustaining vitality or growth, such as dedicated individuals or loyal supporters in a community or organization.

1. The dedicated volunteers are the lifeblood of our community center.
2. For small businesses, loyal customers often serve as the lifeblood that sustains growth.
3. In many cultures, storytelling is considered the lifeblood that preserves traditions and identity.
4. Innovation and creativity are the lifeblood of any thriving tech company.
5. The river provided the lifeblood for the ecosystem that surrounded it.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lifeblood>