

LIFELIKE

Meaning: Lifelike refers to something that closely resembles or imitates the appearance, qualities, or characteristics of real life.

1. The artist's lifelike sculptures amazed everyone at the gallery.
2. The virtual reality game offered a lifelike experience that immersed players in a different world.
3. Her lifelike portrayal of the character earned her critical acclaim in the theater community.
4. The lifelike details in the painting made it seem as though the scene could come to life at any moment.
5. With advances in technology, animatronics are becoming increasingly lifelike and realistic.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lifelike>