

LIKE

Meaning: 'LIKE' (verb): to find pleasure or enjoyment in something or to have a preference for it.

1. I like to spend my weekends exploring new hiking trails.
2. She likes chocolate cake more than any other dessert.
3. They often say that actions speak louder than words, and I like to believe that's true.
4. It feels like the perfect day for a picnic in the park.
5. Do you like the way the new design enhances the overall aesthetic?
6. I really like the way you think about problems.
7. She likes to go for a run every morning before work.
8. Do you like chocolate ice cream, or would you prefer vanilla?
9. It feels like summer is finally here with this warm weather.
10. He acts like he knows everything, but he still has a lot to learn.
11. I really like the way you think about this issue.
12. She seems to like reading mystery novels on rainy days.
13. Do you like coffee or tea better in the morning?
14. He doesn't like the idea of moving to a new city.
15. They like to spend their weekends hiking in the mountains.
16. She has a smile that many people like to see.
17. I would like to try that new restaurant downtown.
18. He talks about his travels as if he really likes to inspire others.
19. Do you feel like going for a walk after dinner?
20. It seems like the weather will be perfect for a picnic tomorrow.
21. I really like the way you expressed your thoughts on the topic.
22. She likes to take long walks in the park every evening.

23. It's important to find a hobby that you truly like and enjoy.
24. He talks about his favorite movies as if he knows the actors personally, almost like they are friends.
25. I really like the new cafe that opened downtown.
26. She sings like an angel, captivating everyone in the audience.
27. Do you have any hobbies that you particularly like?
28. He acts like he knows everything, but he often gets it wrong.
29. They seem to like each other a lot since they always hang out together.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/like>