

LIKELINESS

Meaning: Likeliness refers to the probability or chance that something will happen.

1. The likeliness of rain tomorrow has caused many to cancel their outdoor plans.
2. In the likeliness of a delay, we will inform you as soon as possible.
3. Her likeliness to succeed in the competition was evident from her past performances.
4. The likeliness of meeting the deadline increased with the extra help we received.
5. Experts debate the likeliness of the event occurring this year compared to previous ones.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/likeliness>