LILY-LIVERED

Meaning: LILY-LIVERED: lacking courage or determination; cowardly.

1. He was too lily-livered to confront his boss about the unfair treatment.
2. In a world where courage is often rewarded, those who are lily-livered are quickly left behind.
3. She grew tired of his lily-livered excuses and decided to take matters into her own hands.
4. The hero of the story was anything but lily-livered, facing danger head-on without hesitation.
5. Critics described the politician as lily-livered for failing to take a stand on controversial issues.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lily-livered