

LIMBEC

Meaning: LIMBEC (adjective): existing in a state of ambiguity or uncertainty, often between two contrasting conditions or perceptions.

1. The artist's latest work seemed to hover in a limbec state between reality and illusion.
2. His explanation left me in a limbec of confusion, unsure of what to believe.
3. The novel explores themes of identity and existence in a limbec world.
4. She felt her emotions stuck in a limbec, oscillating between joy and despair.
5. In the limbec of uncertainty, he found the courage to make a bold decision.
6. The new startup's innovative approach to marketing has placed it in a limbec between traditional advertising and digital strategies.
7. As the debate over climate change continues, many scientists find themselves in a limbec, trying to balance their research findings with public opinion.
8. The artist's unique style created a beautiful limbec between realism and abstraction that captivated viewers.
9. In her memoir, she describes the limbec of emotions she felt during her tumultuous relationship.
10. Navigating the limbec of conflicting loyalties proved to be the most challenging aspect of his leadership role.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/limbec>