

LIMBED

Meaning: LIMBED (adjective): having limbs or branches; characterized by the presence of extended parts or appendages.

1. The ancient tree was tall and limbed, its branches sprawling in all directions.
2. A limbed figure emerged from the fog, moving gracefully through the mist.
3. The artist captured the limbed structure of the human form with remarkable precision.
4. In the garden, the limbed bushes provided a natural boundary around the flower beds.
5. The mountain was limbed with a variety of evergreen trees that added to its majesty.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/limbed>