

LIMIT

Meaning: LIMIT (noun): A restriction or boundary that defines the maximum extent or amount of something permissible.

1. The new regulations impose a strict limit on the amount of pollution each factory can emit.
2. She felt a sense of freedom once she learned to push beyond her own self-imposed limits.
3. In order to conserve resources, the city decided to limit water usage during the summer months.
4. His enthusiasm for the project knew no limits, inspiring everyone around him to contribute their best work.
5. They reached the limit of their budget, forcing them to reconsider their spending priorities.
6. The speed limit on this road is strictly enforced to ensure safety.
7. She felt a sense of freedom once she realized she could limit her own fears.
8. His patience has a limit, and he is nearing it with each passing day.
9. To achieve your goals, you must learn to limit distractions and focus on what matters.
10. The project's budget was capped to limit unnecessary expenditures.
11. The new policy places a limit on the number of vacation days employees can carry over to the next year.
12. He felt that the strict time limit for the project would hinder creativity and innovation.
13. The speed limit on this highway is 65 miles per hour, which is strictly enforced by the police.
14. In order to succeed, you must recognize your own limits and work within them.
15. The scientists imposed a limit on the amount of data they would collect to ensure manageable analysis.
16. The new policy placed a strict limit on the number of hours employees could work overtime.
17. He felt that there was no limit to his potential if he worked hard and stayed focused.
18. The scientists discovered a limit to how much stress the material could withstand before it broke.
19. To promote a healthy lifestyle, she decided to limit her sugar intake significantly.
20. The film's runtime was approaching the limit set by the festival organizers for submissions.

21. The company decided to limit the number of hours employees could work overtime.
22. He faced a severe limit on his budget, which forced him to prioritize essential expenses.
23. The teacher set a strict limit on the length of the essays to encourage concise writing.
24. Her patience reached its limit after repeated interruptions during the meeting.
25. They imposed a limit on the number of participants to ensure safety and comfort.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/limit>