

LIMN

Meaning: To limn means to depict or describe something in a detailed and vivid manner, often through art or writing.

1. The artist chose to limn the serene landscape with delicate brushstrokes.
2. In her essay, she attempted to limn the complexities of human emotion through vivid imagery.
3. He used charcoal to limn the outlines of the figures in his dramatic sketch.
4. The documentary aimed to limn the struggles faced by the displaced community.
5. As the sun began to set, the shadows started to limn the contours of the ancient ruins.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/limn>