

LIMNER

Meaning: A limner is an artist or painter, especially one who creates detailed and expressive works, such as landscapes or portraits.

1. The limner skillfully captured the essence of the landscape in his detailed painting.
2. In the quiet corner of the gallery, a limner showcased his latest portraits, each one telling a story.
3. She admired the work of the limner, whose delicate strokes brought the characters to life on the canvas.
4. Historically, a limner was often sought after by aristocrats to document their likenesses for posterity.
5. With a keen eye for detail, the limner transformed ordinary scenes into extraordinary works of art.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/limner>