

LIMNING

Meaning: LIMNING: the act of depicting or describing in detail, often with an emphasis on beauty or intricacy.

1. The artist spent hours limning the delicate features of the model's face.
2. In her latest poem, she excels at limning the beauty of fleeting moments.
3. The author is renowned for limning the complexities of human relationships with great sensitivity.
4. Limning the landscape with vibrant colors, the painter captured the essence of the sunset.
5. His ability to limn the struggles of everyday life resonated deeply with his audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/limning>