

LINCH

Meaning: Linch (noun): a crucial element or central point that holds together an argument or responsibility.

1. The linch of the argument was its undeniable evidence.
2. She felt a linch of responsibility for her team's success.
3. Finding a linch in the complex puzzle proved to be a challenging task.
4. The linch of their friendship was built on trust and shared experiences.
5. He served as the linch in the organization, connecting various departments seamlessly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/linch>