

LINDIFORM

Meaning: Lindiform refers to a specific leaf shape that resembles the outline of a linden tree, often used to describe certain morphological characteristics in botanical studies.

1. The scientist discovered a previously unknown species that exhibited lindiform characteristics in its morphology.
2. In the context of botanical studies, the term "lindiform" describes a specific leaf shape that resembles the outline of a linden tree.
3. The artist's latest sculpture took on a lindiform quality, capturing the essence of organic growth and natural forms.
4. During the lecture, the professor explained how lindiform structures can be found in both plant and animal life, illustrating the connection between the two.
5. The designer's collection was inspired by lindiform patterns, integrating them into textiles that evoke a sense of nature and harmony.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lindiform>