

LINEAMENT

Meaning: Lineament: a distinctive feature or contour, especially in the form of a characteristic outline or structure in a person's face or in a landscape.

1. The artist skillfully captured the lineament of her subject's face in the portrait.
2. Geologists study the lineaments of the landscape to understand its geological history.
3. His lineament revealed a lifetime of experiences etched into his features.
4. The lineament of the mountain range was distinctly visible against the sunset sky.
5. In poetry, the lineament of emotions can be conveyed through vivid imagery and metaphor.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lineament>