

LINGER

Meaning: To remain in a place or state longer than necessary, often due to reluctance to leave.

1. The sweet scent of blooming flowers seemed to linger in the air long after sunset.
2. She decided to linger by the window, watching the rain fall softly on the pavement.
3. Memories of their childhood summer spent at the lake continued to linger in his mind.
4. Though the party ended, laughter and joy lingered in the hearts of the guests.
5. As the song played on, he found himself lingering on the dance floor a little longer than intended.
6. The sweet scent of flowers seemed to linger in the air long after we had left the garden.
7. Even after the argument, his frustration continued to linger, casting a shadow over their conversation.
8. She liked to linger over her morning coffee, savoring each sip as the world around her awakened.
9. Memories of their summer adventure would linger in his mind for years to come.
10. The warmth of the sun began to linger as the day transitioned into a cool evening.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/linger>